

Musical Symphony- Preprimary Sports Day

The little ones showed their prowess on the sporting track in front of the Chief Guest and their parents. It was a musical evening as the participants blew on their pipes and banged on their drums, much to the delight of their parents.

